- One of the major successes of the ALIN delivery of the Foundation's 2016/17 study programme project was the introduction of the concept of calculation and communication.

IMPACT OF STUDY PROGRAMME PROJECT: RESOURCES

- The development and production of the exploring (Technical) route flyers has exceeded any anticipated impact that was expected. This innovative resource developed around the 15 routes outlined in the Sainsbury report, has been hugely welcomed by providers.
- There are now over 55 flyers that provide a resource that links directly to the vocational / technical routes offered mapped to maths and English FS and GCSE, creating clear and informative material that can be used equally by Learners, Providers, Employers and Parents.

TECHNICAL ROUTE FLYERS

WHAT IS SOCIAL ACTION?

Colleges and schools have been "encouraged" to make social action such as volunteering a component of 16-19 study programmes for the first time by the Department for Education.

New guidance on 16-19 study programmes states that social action can be classed as a form of work experience. The document stresses that it can only be included alongside other forms of work experience.

WHAT IS YOUTH SOCIAL ACTION?

The dictionary definition is:
'practical action in the service of others to create positive change'.

The guidance states:
“In a work experience context social action can take the form of young people honing their work related skills and behaviours to have a positive community impact”.

& Industry across Greater Manchester

Introduction

- Delivered in partnership – GMLPN & GMCC
- What is Taking Teaching Further?

 - Childcare & Education
 - Construction
 - Digital
 - Engineering & Manufacturing
- Exchanges
 - At least 24 exchanges will take place
 - 8 case studies to be produced

Research

- FE workforce
 - Dual professional teachers and trainers who combine occupational and pedagogical expertise, who are trusted and given the time to develop partnerships and curricula with employers.
 - Access to industry-standard facilities and resources, reflecting the ways in which technology is transforming work.

Activity to Date

- All four Industry Boards have met (Dec 2018 and Mar 2019).
- Recruited attendees representing 35 FEIs and 26 employers.
- At least 26 exchanges have been identified and planned.

Example Exchanges

- Quad Plus an Employer in Engineering & Manufacturing sector working with Bolton College and Trafford College to identify skills gaps in the curriculum.
- Quad Plus are developing and assessing project that enables learners to gain the extra skills that are required.

Example Exchanges

- Wilmott Dixon, BAM, Kier and Laing O'Rourke offering half day placements for teaching staff at Trafford College, Wigan and Leigh College and The Manchester College.

Findings

- FEIs and employers are keen to collaborate and to develop sustainable, meaningful relationships.
- Exchanges are developing as one to many and many to many.
- Skills gaps in the curriculum are being identified and filled. For example, health & safety and behaviours required prior to commencing employment.
- Industry Boards indicated that Awarding Bodies could engage more closely with employers.
- FEIs have challenges to attract and retain talent in subject areas where the sector has its own recruitment challenges e.g. construction & digital

Apprenticeship Reforms: Where are we now?

Education and Skills Advisory Panel - ESAP

The Impact of Apprenticeship Reforms in Greater Manchester

THE IMPACT OF APPRENTICESHIP REFORMS IN GREATER MANCHESTER.
A REPORT BY THE GREATER MANCHESTER LEARNING PROVIDER NETWORK

Introduction

1. In May 2017 following a lengthy and extensive development process the Government introduced a comprehensive overhaul of Apprenticeship training in England. These changes include: the introduction of Apprenticeship Standards; the inception of End Point Assessment (EPA); the Apprenticeship Levy for large employers and mandatory employer contributions for SMEs; new eligibility criteria and minimum requirements for off the job training. There has also been a wholesale revision of funding rates and the mechanisms for paying providers. The scale of this change has proved challenging for employers, apprentices and training providers and has inevitably resulted in a significant degree of disruption to Apprenticeship training.
2. We have produced the attached paper in order to bring to the attention of wider stakeholders in Greater Manchester, including the Employment and Skills Advisory Panel (ESAP) and the GM Combined Authority, the issues underlying the very significant reduction in Apprenticeship starts. We are seeking the support of the ESAP to lobby Government for the recommended modifications to the reforms which we consider will help to reverse the dramatic decrease in Apprenticeship starts.

Executive Summary

1. The most obvious impact has been a twenty six percent reduction in Apprenticeship starts in Greater Manchester from 30,380 in 2015/16, the last full year before the introduction of the reforms, and 22,590 in 2017/18. The comparative reduction for the Northwest was 28% and for England 26%.
2. The reduction is most pronounced for Apprenticeships at intermediate level (Level 2) with a 46% decline since 2015/16. For the 25+ age group starts this is 56%. The reduction in Advanced Level Apprenticeships was 9% with only a very modest decline in the 16-18 age bracket. Higher Level Apprenticeships have grown substantially as significant new provision, including degree Apprenticeships, has been made available.
3. The loss of Apprenticeship opportunities at intermediate level is significant and this has major implications for social mobility. This is especially so in areas like Greater Manchester which have a significant proportion of the workforce without a Level 2 qualification. The reduction in intermediate level Apprenticeships in three Sector Subject Areas (SSAs) account for almost 80% of the net overall reduction in Apprenticeship starts. These are in Business Administration & Law, Health Public Services & Care and Retail & Commercial Enterprise. These SSAs include many occupations in health & social care, in the retail sector and in general business administration which are the entry points into sustainable employment for many individuals.
4. The introduction of the Apprenticeship Levy has in some cases caused disruption to existing training programmes. However, from our extensive research and knowledge of the sector we know that it is other aspects of the reforms which have been the major factors in reducing starts. In 2017 and 2018 the GMLPN undertook a series of surveys amongst Apprenticeship

Follow Up

Paul Kett

Director General at Department for Education

The Department had projected that levy-paying employers would use 13% of the available funds in 2017-18.

13% profile spend
vs.
9% actual spend

The average cost of training an apprentice on a standard is around double what was expected.

The introduction of standards has increased the number of high-level Apprenticeship starts

12.8%

Financial constraints could inhibit growth in the number of Apprenticeships

Challenge the algorithms

The Department aims to maintain the proportion of apprentices from the most disadvantaged backgrounds at 25%

However, in 2017/18, only 22.6% of new apprentices were from these areas.
